

Vanderbilt Student Recreation

Harlan Electric Company, Inc. completed all electrical work for Vanderbilt's new field house and renovation of the recreation center. This included the addition of a gymnasium and bowling alley, which used BIM and TRIMBLE expertise. This project's field house and recreation center additions increased recreation space by 160,000 sq. ft. The total building (new and existing) is now 299,000 sq. ft.

Market:

Healthcare & Institutional

Date:

2013

Location:

Nashville, TN