

Image by Aerial Innovations Southeast ©

Vanderbilt Engineering and Science Building

The contract that served in the construction of the 240,000 square foot engineering and science building with an additional three levels of shell space for future expansion. The building was designed to achieve LEED Gold certification, with Harlan acting as the primary contractor on site during the length of the construction that spanned three years.

Market:

Education & Institutional

Date:

2016

Location:

Nashville, TN