

Image by Tennessee State Museum

Tennessee State Museum

Located in North Nashville, the museum provides the State of Tennessee a freestanding, contemporary space built to last several lifetimes. The 140,000 square foot building features a digital learning center, a children's educational suite, exhibit space and a grand entrance hall that also serves as event space.

Market:
Historical

Date:
2018

Location:
Nashville, TN

Harlan provided all electrical work for this newly constructed facility. The museum's primary power, emergency power, site lighting, exhibit and gallery lighting, specialty lighting controls, transformers, generators, ATS, fire alarms, lightning protection, telecommunications, data, security, and AV system were put into place by Harlan.

Harlan Electric Company, Inc.
441 Allied Dr., Nashville, TN 37211
615.331.0007 | harlan-electric.com

